

ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

- 117-6-1 Continuing education; renewal requirements. This regulation is being modified to allow continuing education credit for attendance at one state regulatory agency meeting per education cycle. There will be no economic impact to appraisers, other state agencies, or the public.
- 117-6-3 Education; obtaining course approval. This regulation is being modified to require that a USPAP instructor be a certified residential or certified general appraiser. There will be no economic impact to appraisers, other state agencies, or the public.